When father packs for traveling
There isn't much to do;
He packs his best clean nightshirt in.
A handkerchief or two,
Some collars and a toothbrush,
And his silver-mounted comb.
There's not so much a doing
When the old man goes from home
And daddy packs the grip!

But when ma goes traveling
And takes us kids along.
Why things is very different,
And it's quite another song.
She first crowds in three nights.
For the baby, me and Ray;
There isn't room for her, she says.
She doesn't need it, anyway;
But there's brush and combs and scissors.
Soap and powder, needles, thread;
Pins and thimble and contri-plaster.
"Cause one's I cut my head!
Then there's vaseline and witch-hazel.
And there's vaseline and strings.
Paper, pencil, stamps and crackers
And such jolly heaps of things;
For when we go a-traveling
There's one thing we're agreed—
No one can tell beforehand
Just what us kids will need.
And I speaks for bernarnas,
And Ray wants sugar lumps.
And me is firm for aricas
To bathe our worsted bumps.
Oh, there's lots o' fun a-bustling
To squeeze things good and tight,
And there ain't no use a-talking
For everything's all right
When our ma she packs the grip!

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

James Seeley Asks Sum of $5,000
From Thomas M. Russell

Through Attorneys Alfred E. Stricklett of Covington and Thomas R. Phister of this city, Mr. James Seeley yesterday filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court against Thomas M. Russell for $5,000 damages.

The suit is the outcome of the automobile accident on May 28th last, in the Fleming pike some six miles out from Maysville.

It will be remembered that Mr. Seeley and Mr. James McNamara, while out driving, were thrown from their vehicle by their horse turning suddenly at sight of Mr. Russell's automobile.

The occupants of the buggy were more or less injured, Mr. Seeley placing his damage at the above amount.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Former Maysville Lady Discovers Burglar at Home in Lexington

Mrs. C. J. Winkler, formerly Miss Tola Orr of this city, had an exciting experience Sunday night at her home in Lexington.

While her husband was at the Western Union Telegraph Office, where he is employed, a man entered their residence, 418 Pine street.

Hearing a noise like the raising of the dining-room window, Mrs. Winkler opened the door to investigate and was confronted by a hairy white man, who was walking toward the door she had just opened.

She screamed loudly, and neighbors rushed to the scene and frightened the man away without capturing him.

A search of the premises was made without result.

WAS PROVIDED FOR

Dazed Woman Found at the C. and O. West End Station

Sunday night Policeman Wallace found a woman leaning against the banister at the C. and O. Depot in a half-dazed condition.

She had just alighted from the excursion train.

When questioned she gave her name as Mrs. Steers and said she was the mother of the young man confined in the County Jail charged with being implicated in the robbery at Dover several weeks ago.

She was in a terrible plight, being either drunk or under the influence of some drug.

The officer had a serious time in getting her to a lodging house.

At times she would make the wilkin ring with loud outcries and screams, then for a change she would almost faint.

She was neatly and becomingly dressed and rather good-looking.

She was placed in kindly hands where she was cared for until morning.

She left for her home in Covington yesterday.

Sheets and Pillow Cases

Tedious home work with wearisome pedaling of the sewing machine has small chance in competition with steam-driven sewing machines that make from 1,200 to 2,000 stitches a minute. That is why sheets and pillow cases, ready-made, cost so little more than the plain muslins.

THAT The Courier-Journal has a way of its own in "hitting the nail on the head," is shown by this—

"The Government Printing Office, which spends $7,000,000 of the taxpayers' money annually, most of it unnecessarily, is notoriously mismanaged grossly in the interest of the politicians and grafters; it being well known by those familiar with the printing business that private printers would do the work better for half the money. It is a striking illustration of the methods and results of 'Government control.'"

DON'T attach too much importance to the reported riots in Tokio. Think of the anti-draft riots in New York in 1863, when more than 1,000 men were killed; of the Commune in Paris, following the defeat of France by Germany, in 1871, when more than 60,000 persons were killed and one-fourth of the city was destroyed. Tokio will survive the outbreak of her stay-at-home "patriots," just as New York and Paris did theirs.

THE differences between true temperance and "temperance" was so long ago as 1895 pointed out by the veteran Canadian Editor, GOLDWIN SMITH, in an article on "Prohibition in Canada," in which he said:

"The party usually calls itself that of Temperance. Temperance is one thing, total abstinence another, and coercion, at which these reformers aim, is a third. As temperance implies self-restraint, there can be no temperance, in the proper sense of the term, where there is coercion. The 'Temperance' people are not usually inclined to listen to anything so rationalistic as the lessons of experience. They tell you that with them it is not a matter of expediency, but of principle; that their cause is the cause of Heaven; yours, if you are an opponent, that of the darker power; and they intimate with more or less of gentleness and courtesy, what, if you persist in getting in Heaven's way, will be your deserved and inevitable doom."

"Personal liberty still lives and the rights of property are secure. Persuasion used to accomplish a wrongful purpose is as unlawful as violence."

This is the heading of pamphlets just issued by the Employers Association of Cincinnati. They contain the injunction of Judge HOSEA, enjoining the iron molders from compelling, or attempting to compel, or induce by threats, intimidation, force, violence or unlawful persuasion any of the employes of the I. & E. Greenwald Company to leave its service, and the Judge's decision in the contempt proceedings, in which he fined two of the officers of the Molders Union $100 and costs for violating the injunction.

Secretary CHARLES F. WALTZ of the Employers Association has had ten thousand of the pamphlets printed, and they will be sent throughout the country. In the introduction Mr. WALTZ says:

"The decisions made by the Hon. LEWIS M. HOSEA, Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati in the moulder strike have become famous throughout the country. They are landmarks in the judicial history of the industrial conflict, and are sought for everywhere by those desiring to re-establish personal liberty and property rights, too long ignored by the authorities and practically destroyed by strikers."

CURED BY CUTICURA
AT COST OF $4.50

Miss Nellie Vander Wiel, of Lakeside, N. Y., writing under date of April 18, 1904, says: "I do wish you would publish this letter in the newspapers, so that others suffering as I have may see it and be helped. I suffered for many months with an awful skin disease, sores covering my ears, neck, and cheeks. Scabs would form and they would swell, and itch day and night. Then they would break open and bleed and matter run out. I had tried many different remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was growing worse when I tried the Cuticura Remedies. The first application helped me, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, I was completely cured."

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scaled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost super-human virtue to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt by the testimony of the civilized world.

Good News For the Creditors of Some Postoffice Clerks

The following from Postmaster General Cotteloy will be glad news to many long-waiting creditors, and bad news to some long-winded debtors.

WASHINGTON, September 9.—Postmasters throughout the country must pay their debts or retire from the public service.

Worried beyond endurance by the army of collectors seeking the payment of debts contracted by Clerks in the Department, the Postmaster General has issued an order in which he announces that the Department "will not harbor any one who contracts a debt on the strength of his official position and then, without sufficient excuse, neglects to make payment."

This is taken to apply to Postmasters as well.
